Nearby activities / things to see:

*Gettysburg: About an hour and ten-minute drive via I-81 and US-30. The best way to see the battlefield is the guided car tour, which I have done twice. The Cyclorama is also a worthwhile event. <https://www.gettysburgfoundation.org/> or <https://www.gettysburgfoundation.org/exhibits-tours-events/exhibits-tours-events/battlefield-car-tour>

*Harpers Ferry: About forty minutes from Martinsburg. The parking lot is remote from the site with bus transportation to and from the town. It is a lot of walking on a hillside but there are many restaurants, museums, and other attractions. <https://www.nps.gov/hafe/index.htm>

*Antietam: Closest to Martinsburg at Thirty minutes. I have only done the December bus/ car tour at night where the volunteers light a luminary for each casualty clustered in the areas where the skirmishes took place. There Were just over 22,000 casualties in the battle of Antietam. <https://www.nps.gov/anti/planyourvisit/index.htm>

*There is a health spa about a mile away from the Inn that my wife has used and really likes. "Touch of Grace Spa and Salt Cave" offers many services including a Halotherapy Salt Cave that offers relief from respiratory symptoms. <http://gracespawv.com/>

*Martinsburg visitors website is <https://www.travelwv.com/>

*Hagerstown in Washington County MD is just to the north of Martinsburg across the Potomac River and has many attractions. <https://www.visithagerstown.com>

*The best restaurant in Martinsburg I would recommend is "The McFarland house near downtown Martinsburg. <https://www.historicmcfarlandhouse.com/>
