GENERAL INFORMATION:

Banquet:

The Saturday evening Banquets are considered a formal event. Although some Leaguers who pay to attend the banquet may not have the Marine Corps League's formal Wear, they could wear the Casual Uniform (Red Blazer) of the MCL or a coat and tie. However, if the League member has neither they will not be denied attendance at the Banquet if wearing the MCL Undress Uniform, long or short sleeve shirt. If possible, the banquet should be a sit-down affair, not buffet. A minimum of two entrées should be offered. The cost should be kept as reasonable as possible but should still allow the Host organization to make a few dollars.

Hospitality Suite:

How do the attendees get liquid refreshments? Some hosting organizations have taken cash for drinks, but this would depend on local ordinances. The host organization may wish to take donations from each person obtaining a drink. Or they may choose to solicit contributions from Departments, Detachments, Packs/Pounds, and Auxiliary Units within the Division.

Special/Guest of Honor at Conferences:

The National Vice Commandant or the hosting organization can invite a VIP Guest (Guest of Honor or Special Guest), but the NVC shall approve of the selection. Complimentary guest rooms, negotiated as part of the hotel contract, shall be assigned to the Assistant National Vice Commandant and the Division Auxiliary President. The cost for all other rooms and banquet meals, for the invitee and his/her guest shall be the responsibility of the hosting organization.

Special Event Liability:

The general liability coverage provided by National has liquor exclusion. Sometimes your site Hotel may require some General Liability coverage that does not exclude liquor if liquor is being served (Hospitality Suite) by the Host Organization. If your Detachment or subsidiary is incorporated, individual members of the organization are somewhat protected. If the Hotel requires "Special Event" additional coverage, the information regarding additional coverage by Rust Insurance Agency, LLC can be found on the MCL National website Member Library under "Insurance – Certificate".

Financial Reporting:

The Host organization of the Conference shall submit a Financial Report to the National Vice Commandant no later than 45 days following the event. The report should contain a statement certifying that all bills have been paid, a statement certifying that all required fees have been forwarded to the Division Paymaster. Also identify any problems encountered and how they were resolved.
